SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Cominform propaganda circulated in Yugoslavia is largely of Hungarian and Czechoslovakian origin. Reportedly, the newspaper of Yugoslav Cominform refugees, Nova Borba, as well as other anti-Tito propaganda materials, are usually introduced into Yugoslavia by ships of various countries, primarily Swedish, that call at Yugoslav ports.
2. Daily Czechoslovakian propaganda material is reportedly also introduced into Yugoslavia by contrabandists.
3. In the Italo-Yugoslav frontier zone, leftist Italian newspapers are not regularly smuggled across the line, although a limited number of copies are occasionally entrusted to persons travelling to Trieste on business.
